

PUBLIC LEADER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1895.

ONE CENT.

Major J. T. Long is at Lane, Kansas.

Mr. E. W. White of Ellettsville is in the city yesterday.

Mr. C. A. Peters of Poplar Plains was in town yesterday.

Mr. Theo. Power the druggist is in Millersburg today.

Mr. J. H. Lawwill of Danville is visiting friends in this city.

Miss May Field of Chicago is the guest of Miss Echeverie Wall.

Mr. S. L. Dayton of Mt. Olive paid a visit to Maysville yesterday.

Mrs. Dr. J. H. Samuel and son Lovel were in Cincinnati yesterday.

Mr. E. Pitt, one of Augusta's business men, was in this city yesterday.

Mr. Belle Barker is visiting her aunt, M. A. Martha Brace at Covington.

Dr. S. M. Pangburn made a professional visit to Lexington this morning.

Mr. J. H. Parks of Carlisle came down yesterday on a brief business trip.

Mrs. Duke Watson and daughters leave today for Millersburg, to visit Mrs. James Arthur.

Editor Newcomb of The Ripley Bee was in the city yesterday and made The Leader a pleasant call.

Mrs. A. F. Buehler, after an extended visit to her mother, Mrs. John Watson, left this morning for her home in Frankfort.

Vineburg Run—Mrs. W. H. Ball of Maysville was called here last week on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. W. W. Winton. John P. McCartney, Mr. John J. Reynolds and Mr. Charles Mack of Flemingsburg were down yesterday to see the great ball game.

Mr. M. S. Myall and Miss Addie Gooding, Mr. James Raymond and Mrs. Mary Miller, all of Maysville, were in town yesterday to see the game of ball.

Meers, C. K. Armstrong, J. R. Pugh and Captain S. P. Bayless, three Vineburgers, were in the city yesterday to see the Cincinnati Reds get dumped.

Miss Amy Bowtell of Hollidaysburg, Penn., made a pleasant visit to Miss Fannie Frazee of this city, left this morning for a visit to Louisville before returning home.

Flemingsburg will celebrate the Fourth of Uncle Sam with fireworks—and a little water thrown in.

Mrs. Lucinda Newkirk, widow of Mr. John Newkirk, and one of Maysville's oldest residents, died about 9 o'clock this morning at her home near this city.

Owingsville is all "battling" about buying one of our old fire engines, and The Banner says it can be bought for a song. That might be the way Owingsville people are selling things, but we do business down here for money.

AT RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS.

The Old Settlers' Meeting and Sale of Privileges.

Don't forget that the Old Settlers will settle, break bread and shake hands on the Fourth of July at Ruggles Campgrounds. Quite a large crowd will be present on that day. Come and meet with the Old Settlers. Since we last met quite a number of those that were present last year will not be present at roll-call, but have gone to answer the last roll-call above. Those who have died during the year are Mr. William T. Cole, aged 89 years and 6 months, who was the founder of the Old Settlers' meetings; Uncle James Meacham, 88 years; Mr. Guy Owens, 83; Mr. Samuel Lyons, 80 years; William Hardman, 78 years; Also Miss Pearl Thomas, who read the Declaration of Independence so nicely last year, has gone to her reward.

The privileges of the camping meet board will be let on that day. Should anyone desire to spend a few days rest, and also have the advantage of good religious meetings, you cannot find a better place than at these noted campgrounds. Dr. Hartsell of the Southern Educational Society and Rev. S. O. Royall of Cincinnati, and also the great evangelist Miss Anna L. Carter will be present to assist in the meetings. A few more rooms and cottages to rent. Apply to I. M. Lane, Rooms at $2 and $3; one-story cottages at $5, two-story at $7. Those desiring to go out the Fourth will please notify Mr. Lane. Fare 50 cents.

GE WHIZ!

How Maysville Did Pound the Porkopolitans!

George Reiman, the Handiest Pitcher that Ever Wore a Teeplate, Wins His Game From Cincinnati.

The great Cincinnati Reds, or we should say the once great Cincinnati Reds, put in four hours here yesterday afternoon.

Two hours of the time was consumed playing ball, the balance in listening to a roast from Manager Bancroft.

The Reds came here with the idea that all they had to do was to knock the ball around the lot, go through the motions, win the game and then go back to Cincinnati and tell the reporters about this day town, and about comical situations that never occurred, and funny things they saw when they didn't have a gun.

That was the program, but it was never carried out by Buck Ewing's Red-legged braves under the personal supervision of Manager Frank Bancroft.

Fifteen hundred people yelled until they were black in the face when our boys went right at the game that held first place as long as twenty-four hours.

It was a magnificent game throughout, and like a fine drama, it must have a hero.

George Reiman, the Local's pitcher, was the bright particular star of the game.

He did not only use his hands and feet, but his thinskap as well.

Every man on the Local team played a splendid game, but it is due to Reiman's leadership more than anything else that permitted the "fans" to jolly last night.

Maysville's outfield played a remarkable game, and pulled down hit after hit that was apparently booked for the fence.

Wadsworth, Maysville's center fielder, dragged down with one hand and hot line drive from "Dusty" Miller's bat in the third that looked good for a home run, and the crowd is applauding yet.

In the seventh "Dummy" Hoy rapped one smack on the nose and it sailed over the right field fence, performing what heretofore was considered an impossibility.

Bob Poage played first for Maysville and did well. The Local's two errors are charged up to him, but they were almost excusable as they were very difficult chances.

How the runs were made: Our lads went right at Mr. Phillips in the second and transacted some little business with him. Captain McGinn started the foulade by sliding over third. Phillips balked and Mac walked to the second corner and stole third. Reiman singled and McGinn scored. George was sacrificed to second by Van Winkle and scored on Wadsworth's two-bagger. Henry was left.

In the fifth the "fans" hearts were in their mouths. Gray singled and was caught at second. Holliday flew to center. With two gone it looked easy, but Foreman then cracked out a single. Reiman then pushed him up a notch by letting Phillips walk. The "fans" nearly fainted when Hoy shouldered a bat and straddled the slab. But Reiman knew a thing or two and let him walk. The bags were loaded and two heads out. A hit would loom up like a slice of gooseberry pie in a paper of handkerchiefs a hungry tramp. The response was a fall. At this jun-ture Reiman's baseball ability again asserted itself. Quick as a flash he threw to second and caught Phillips napping. The cheer that went up echoed and re-echoed from the Ohio hills.

A base on balls and two errors gave the Porkopolitans their first score in the sixth. Score 2 to 1.

Our boys hit the ball out again in the seventh and scored some more. Van Winkle singled, Wadsworth did likewise and Dickie took third. Henry pliffed second. Poage was presented with a base on balls. Tenley forced Poage out at second. Cox singled. Van Winkle scored. Wadsworth was caught at third. Tenley scored and Cox was nailed at third.

Hoy booted one over the right field fence in the seventh and trotted around the circuit.

Cincinnati chalked up her last score in the eighth. Miller fanned out. Hogreiver hit a high fly ball of short that was allowed to fall safe. Snow fiddling let him down to second. Vaughn singled to center and "Hoggie" scored. McGinn and Poage executed a double play.

Maysville came in for their last turn at the bat. Two Locals got on bases, but were left.

The Reds went out in order in their half by a bit of fast fiddling, and we celebrated.

The score:

There has been some large tobacco purchases made in Lewis county this year and beyond any doubt from present prospects will prove very profitable to the dealers. There has been purchased and delivered at Vineburg to all dealers about 500,000 pounds of the weed. Taking the purchases over the county there will be in the neighborhood of 800,000 to 1,000,000 in Lewis county.

THE BANNER OF LIGHT.

Editor of a Great Paper Cured by Paine's Celery Compound.

The Banner of Light is as every one knows, one of the most successful denominational publications issued in this country.

In its 77th volume it is at once conservative and bright, discussing not only modern Spiritualism, but frequently lending its influence fearlessly in matters of public importance outside its principal field.

Mr. John W. Day, who is the editor and one of the proprietors, writes in the Banner of Light as follows to the proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound:

"I owe you a debt of gratitude in placing on the market such a nerve easing and soothing remedy as Paine's Celery Compound. It was brought to my notice by a friend who had himself been greatly relieved by its use, as I have also been."

"I have frequently taken occasion to commend Paine's Celery Compound to others, and I do not know an instance wherein, if faithfully tried, it has not worked a benefit. Yours truly,"

"JOHN W. DAY."

Mr. Day's portrait is given above. He is a member of the Masonic, Oddfellows, Grand Army and other fraternal organizations, and is highly esteemed by his brethren and others in the social walks of life.

His gratitude for the good that this greatest of remedies has done him is no sense remarkable. Thousands who have been made well by Paine's Celery Compound have sent their unsolicited testimonials to the proprietors of the remedy or direct to medical journals or newspapers telling for the benefit of others the results that have followed the use of the remedy that is food for the nerves and brain, that enriches the blood, that makes the weak strong, and in the case of failing specific, prescribed by physicians and recommended by all who have ever faithfully used it, for insomnia, nervous debility, neuralgia, rheumatism, indigestion and the many ills that come from deranged, worn-out nerves and impure blood.

but he will lose thousands of disgusted silver votes that he could have had but he did not take down his gun on the skirmish line.

Another outrageous act of the Convention was the treatment of Senator Blackburn, especially by Judge Becker and the Lexington delegation. Senator Blackburn has been the friend of Lexington, and our people should be proud of his loyalty.

But what did our Lexington twelve do? When it came to the district delegation selecting a member for the Committee on Resolutions they voted solidly 11 up and 1 down for Professor Yeager of Georgetown. Blackburn was elected by 33 men Lexington's twelve votes gave him a majority of 11.

The next act of bad treatment Blackburn came from Judge Becker. He agreed temporary Chair. Blackburn had the selection of from the State-at-Large for the Resolutions. Did he exercise his duty? I say no. He chose clearly, he should be, in justice and sense, have selected Blackburn in the place of Judge Becker.

The whole proceeding shows a deep plan to knife Blackburn, and many silver votes that he could have had but he did not take down his gun on the skirmish line.

This knifing business, and the idiotic anti-A. P. A. resolution, settles the doom of the ticket in November. The conduct of Hardin, Becker and others will cause the loss of many Democratic votes, and the anti-A. P. A. resolution will lose the party $5,000 to $10,000 more.

Bretley and the entire Republican ticket is in November, and the Legislature will also be likely to go Republican. And all this must the Democratic party suffer as a result of the work of a lot of people with no more political sense or integrity than a lot of growlers.
